九份老街
Jiufen Old St.

九份

清朝光緒19年(西元1893年)在九份地區發現砂金，淘金與採金的人潮便逐漸湧入此地，於是展開了淘金歷史，在1971年正式結束開採。九份位處於環山面海的丘陵地上，為一座高低錯落有致的山城聚落，風土民情充滿濃厚的人情味。隨著季節的變化，山景也大異其趣，呈現不同的風貌。過去，九份成為淘金客的尋夢園，如今，它已成為許多藝術工作者的殿堂。

Jiufen

In 1893, alluvial gold was discovered in Jiufen during Emperor Guangxu's reign (Qing dynasty), and gold panning and gold mining crowds came to the area and so it began the era of gold prospecting. Mining officially ended in 1971. Jiufen is located in a hilly area surrounded by mountains and facing the sea. It is a steep mountainside settlement rich in local customs and full of friendly residents. With the changing of seasons, the mountain scenery also varies greatly and displays different facades. In the past, Jiufen was a paradise for gold prospectors, but nowadays, it has become a haven for many artists.

黃金瀑布
Gold Waterfall

黃金瀑布

早期因為小溪上游開採銅礦，礦砂沈積溪床，雨水經表層裂隙滲入礦體，與黃鐵礦及硫砷銅礦接觸，經氧化還原及鐵細菌之催化作用，形成高酸性礦水最後再由地表排出，因而形成金黃色的瀑布奇觀，而黃褐色的陰陽海，就是黃金瀑布與濂洞溪所排出之酸性水所造成的天然現象。

Gold Waterfall

In the early days, as copper ore was mined upstream, the sediment was deposited in the streambed, and rainwater seeped into the orebody through the surface cracks and came into contact with pyrite and enargite. As a result, highly acidic mineral water was formed due to the catalytic reaction caused by iron-oxidizing bacteria, which resulted in the formation of the stunning golden yellow waterfall. The yellowish-brown Yin Yang Sea is a natural phenomenon caused by the acidic water discharged from the Golden Waterfall and Liandong Stream.

南雅南新宮
Nanya Nanxin Temple

龍洞灣公園
Longdongwan Park

愛玩山海戀：南雅海岸

於此站下車，步行約5分鐘，則開始進入「南雅海岸」。由於山勢陡峭，所以海崖及海蝕風化岩最為發達，各層岩石受侵蝕的程度、侵蝕速率也有所不同而產生造型奇特的地貌，而節理在風化侵蝕的作用下，形成了如針狀或柱狀的「岩峰」。另外還有南雅地質步道、南子吝步道，都是能讓遊客飽覽沿岸壯麗景觀的步道。

Nanya Coast

Disembark at this station and walk for five minutes to arrive at the Nanya Coast. Due to the steep mountain face, the most common topographical landmarks are cliffs and eroded rock. The resistance to erosion of different layers of rocks has formed a unique landscape. Due to wind erosion, some rocks have been formed into pillar or even needle-like "rock sculptures". In addition, the Nanya Geographical Trail and Nanzilin Hiking Trail allow visitors to visit and take in the splendid scenery along the coast.

浮潛戲水天堂：龍洞灣海洋公園

龍洞灣海洋公園內地質景觀千變萬化，建築主體由石塊組成，設有咖啡廳、游泳池、潛水池、地質教室等設施。這裡是由九孔養殖池改建而成，是個相當適合潛水及學習獨木舟的地方。退潮時，海岸邊會出現長達一百公尺以上的潮間帶，可以觀察到許多特殊的海濱生物，是能夠寓教於樂的遊憩景點。

Longdong Bay Ocean Park

As a popular recreational spot combining a café, swimming pools, snorkeling training pools, and a geological exhibition center, Longdong Bay Ocean Park is reconstructed from abalone aquaculture ponds and has been converted into the perfect place for diving, snorkel training and canoeing. During low tide, the 100-meter tidal flat provides a wonderful chance to investigate all kinds of living coastal creatures.

Zhuangwei Dune Visitor Center

IZhuangwei Dune Visitor Center was built using green architecture concepts by famed architect Huang Sheng-Yuan. The building's design integrates Yilan's natural scenery, preserving the sand dune landscape of Zhuangwei's shores and the unique flora and fauna of the area, letting them serve as the centerpiece of visitors' experience. The exhibition area features facilities such as a visitor's center, an exhibition hall, and a multi-function leisure area. Whether it be dawn, dusk, or nighttime, having a stroll through the park, listening to the waves, and taking in the scenery is always greatly enjoyable, making the visitor center a new highlight of Yilan's international charm.

賞鯨觀光漁港：烏石港(蘭陽博物館)

烏石漁港於清道光六年(西元1826年)正式啟用，因對外貿易繁盛，清朝曾於此設立砲台、海關及駐軍等，具有深厚的歷史意義，曾是宜蘭的第一大港。民國88年設立了假日觀光魚市，現因宜蘭外海為相當著名的賞鯨景點，烏石漁港也成為眾多賞鯨船出入的港口。

海天一線好風景：大坑觀景台

原本是堤防上廢棄的海巡營舍，經翻修後改名為大坑觀景台，2022年6月開幕的咖啡甜點餐廳「川岩River Stone Coffee Bar」，是旅客可以坐下來歇腳、遠眺龜山島海景，以及品嚐美味料理的好去處。附近還有秘密衝浪景點「臭水」、自行車道，可以一路騎到烏石港、蘭陽博物館！

Wushi Harbor (Lanyang Museum)

Steeped in historical significance and once the largest harbor in Yilan, Wushi Harbor officially opened in 1826. Because of the once thriving international trade, the Qing Dynasty government established forts and customs and stationed military here. A weekend tourist fish market was set up in 1999. Because the area offshore of Yilan has become a famous whale-watching spot, Wushi Harbor has become a much trafficked harbor for whale-watching boats.

Dakeng Lookout Deck

This once abandoned guard house on the embankment was renovated and transformed into the Dakeng Lookout Deck. In June 2022, River Stone Coffee Bar opened its doors, providing visitors with a great place to sit down, rest, admire the view of Guishan Island and the ocean, and enjoy delicious refreshments. There is also a secret surfing spot known as "Choushui" nearby, as well as a bicycle path that leads straight to Wushi Harbor and the Lanyang Museum!

The new center faces the Turtle Island and is blessed with a special wetland beach where visitors can take a scenic walk. Some say its service center looks like a paraglider canopy, while other say it's like a boat. Why not see this eye-catching yellow building that leans against the blue sky and the green sea by yourself? At dusk and dawn, looking out from this trail, you'll see that the ocean is bathed in a golden halo. You can also find that the Turtle Island seems to be worshipping the Sun at sunrise or that it wears a hat of clouds on cloudy days.

Daxi (Daxi Train Station)

衝浪賞景好去處：蜜月灣

大溪以眉月形狀的迤邐海灣、海水湛藍清澈聞名，蜜月灣南北兩側分佈著礁岩，僅中間少部分為細軟沙灘，除了風景秀麗，可供戲水賞景外，由於海灣遼闊，且離海岸數百公尺的海底地形起伏很大，海浪常激起2、3公尺高，波濤洶湧，更是水上活動及衝浪聖地，每年吸引不少極限挑戰者來此參加全國性衝浪比賽。

Honeymoon Bay

Daxi is famous for its winding bay in the shape of a crescent moon and its clear blue water. Honeymoon Bay is dotted with reefs on the north and south sides, and only a small part in the middle is a beach with soft sand, perfect for enjoying the beautiful scenery and water leisure activities. In addition, huge waves of two to three meters are formed here because the bay is vast and the seabed, extending a few hundred meters away from the coast, has an undulating terrain. The high, rough waves make Honeymoon Bay a mecca for water sports and surfing. Every year, many extreme sports challengers come here to participate in national surfing competitions.
